

Union of Industrial and Employers' Confederations of Europe
Union des Confédérations de l'Industrie et des Employeurs d'Europe

BENCHMARKING EUROPE'S COMPETITIVENESS

From analysis to action

The UNICE benchmarking report of 1998 is a 56-page four-colour printed brochure including text, tables, and graphs, sold at a price of 10 EURO. Copies may be obtained from UNICE's Documentation Centre, e-mail address p.kettlewell@unice.be

CONTENTS

Introduction

- I. Improve the European business environment
  - + Stabilising the macroeconomic environment
  - + Completion of the Single Market
  - + Industrial costs and EU liberalisation

- II. Streamline the public sector and make it more effective
  - + Public sector expenditure
  - + Overall tax burden
  - + Tax wedge on labour
  - + Employment in the public sector
  - + Financial burden on private sector employment

- III. Reduce the weight of burdens imposed on companies
  - + Total labour costs and non-wage costs
  - + Working time
  - + "Hiring and firing" rules
  - + Shop opening-hours
  - Sound environmental policy regulation

- IV. Reform labour markets
  - + Employment growth
  - + Labour force participation
  - + Total and youth unemployment
  - + Incentives to work
  - + Flexible employment patterns
  - + Science education

Appendix

List of Charts
UNICE Competitiveness Working Group