President Georges Jacobs announced today that the Acting Secretary General, Daniela Israelachwili, will leave UNICE by the end of the year.

“I regret Ms Israelachwili’s decision but understand her wish to pursue other work opportunities after fourteen years in UNICE. I thank her for all she has done and achieved over the years in her different functions in our organisation and wish her the best for the future” said Jacobs, adding that the appointment of a new Secretary General will be announced shortly.

Note to the editor:

UNICE is the official voice of more than 16 million small, medium and large companies active in Europe, employing over 106 million people. Active in European affairs since 1958, UNICE’s members are 33 central industrial and employers federations from 26 countries, working together to achieve growth and competitiveness in Europe.
