FLEXICURITY: A UNIQUE CHANCE TO MODERNISE EUROPEAN LABOUR MARKETS

The Commission communication on flexicurity, to be presented tomorrow, marks the start of a most important debate to modernise European labour markets.

The flexicurity approach can create better conditions for growth and jobs.

Ernest-Antoine Seillière, President of BUSINESSEUROPE said: “Flexicurity provides the right framework to correct structural weaknesses on European labour markets. Member States must not miss this opportunity to create more jobs and provide more security.”
